

I have successfully developed my professional portfolio website using GitHub Pages. The website showcases my academic qualifications, professional experience, research publications, and contact information in a well-structured format. It has been created using the Minimal Theme of Jekyll for a clean and responsive design, making it accessible across devices.

This platform will serve as an online professional profile, enabling visitors to view my credentials and achievements easily.

Live Link: <https://dkvermaec.github.io>